Remember

Did anyone meet someone new on Sunday? (Encourage your group to continue to recognize when they can show hospitality to those around them)

Read Daniel 2:1-12

What are some things that stand out from this part of the passage?

Do you have an example of a time in your life when stakes were high and the odds were slim?

What type of things come from our hearts when this is true.

How does our responses to these types of circumstances reveal our own character and what we believe about God?

Deepen

Read Daniel 2:13 -19

What are some things that stand out about Daniel and his friends in this section of the passage?

- Daniel asked for the appointment before the dream was revealed
- Daniel calls on his friends for prayer

How can we better pursue these kind of faithful friendships in our community?

Read Daniel 2:20-30

What are the characteristics of God that are expressed in Daniel's prayer?

- Is it hard for you to remember that God is still all of these characteristics? Why or why not?

What are some observations of Daniel's behavior before king Nebuchadnezzar?

Read Jeremiah 9:23-24

What are some things that we are tempted to find our worth through?

Read Daniel 2:31-49

What stands out to you about the dream and it's interpretation?

Transform

How can we walk by faith because of our hope in God?

What do we need to do to encourage one another in this?

What are ways you see God moving currently in your life personally? In the life of our group?

Spend some time praying for one another.
